Adventist Church
Rufus B. McDannell, Pastor.
Sabboth School Lession No. 3 for October 17, 1970. Subject: How Advetist Became Health-Minded. The story of how Adventists became health - minded is a remarkable account of providential leading through the gift of prophecy. The church came to accept and advocate the principles of healthful living at a time when most of the world was in gross ignorance on the subject. The late Dr. Clive McCoy wrote in the Review and Herald of February 12, 1959:"Health has been a matter of little individual concern to most people in our nation during its whole history. Among the 170 million people in America today (1958) there are probably not more than 10 million who are willing to devote substantial thought and self-discipline to maintain healthy bodies. Only after they have lost their health are most people willing to give any attention to the cure of their bodies."
Lesson Outlines,- 1. Advent Movement in Prophecy Rev. 14: 12. 2. Prophecy in the Adventist Movement, Joe. 2:28,29. 3. Prophetic Guidance in Healthful Living. 4. The 1863 Health Vision. 5. Early Adventist Vital Statistics. 6. Health Teaching In The Church.
The Prophecy of Rev. 14:6-12, also Isa. 58:12-14 calls upon all to keep God's Commandments and without obedience to God's commandments, no worship can be pleasing to God without keeping His commandments for "Obedience" accompanies "the faith of Jesus" Rev. 1r:12. It is indeed a timely message for Isaih speaking of the last days writes: "The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statues, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt." Isaiah 24:5,6 R8V. Please read Rev. 14:6-14 carefully. In these verses, "The Advent Movement is described prophetically along with the unique threefold messages represent the remnant with the unique threefold message it proclaims. The Angelic messages represent the remnant people engaged in preaching and teaching the everlasting gospel in the setting of the judgement-hour" with a loud voice" the "present truth" is given on an international scale, timely and pertinent to the needs of men in the last days. The work is preparatory, Christ is coming again as the long - awaited King, also read Joel's message chapter 2:28-32. More than anything texts the pioneers of the Advent Movement referred to these for support of the gift of prophecy in the remnant church. The Pioneers also found support in the New Testament for the spirit of prophecy writings. See Rev. 19:10, also 1 Cor. 1:4-8. John the revelater pictures a latter-day reformation movement in these words. "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus". Rev. 14:12.

Seventy Attend College Night

"Very informative and helpful", "We needed more time"., "Too crowded", "Well organized and impressive".
These remarks were taken from a recent survey conducted by the Guidance Department at Appomattox County High School of Juniors and Seniors who attended "College Night" at E.C. Glass on October 12 in Lynchburg, Va. Approximately 70 ACHS students visited with college representatives of their choice during the two hour program. We were very pleased that several parents attended and responded favorably as indicated by the survey.
Students were asked for their reactions to the sessions of the various colleges, and several points of constructive criticism were received a s well as praise for their presentations. Students requested organization to allow for longer sessions, opportunity to visit more groups, more flimstrip presentations, and the use of student representatives to present another aspect of college life. The consensus indicated that students felt the 11th grade was the most appropriate gradelevel for "College Night", however several suggested that the 10th grade should be included for another year.
The Guidance Department solicits ideas and suggestions for improvement of our participation in this program for next year.

Return Mr. Abbitt

...ose now and November third voters ...Fourth District must decide who they ...represent them in Congress for ...the years. They have three candi... from which to choose, the encumbent ...ressman M. Abbitt, Republican James ...ard Independent Ben Ragsdale. All ...s have been out seeking support, each ...to convince you that they are best ...ed to serve. The Courier-Record endorses Mr. Abbitt for re-election and urges ...ll conservative-minded voters to join ...porting Mr. Abbitt to Congress where ...has served the people in his district with ...ty, honesty and fairness for the past ...ars.

...ose who have followed the editorial ...cy of this newspaper are aware that the ...Record does not follow party labels ...ndorsed leeds its support to the candi... which it feels can best do the job ...ld represent the people. Republicans ...mocrats and Conservatives know this ...per will not hesitate to cross political ...ines and has in fact supported candi... from all three parties during various ...mpaigns. Again, in this election, ...ere is no man whom we support, not the ...ty but it is the man who will be repre...ting the Fourth District. The parties, ...ever is the Fourth District, have a way ...disappearing after elections. They rise ...m from their drums a few weeks before ...ction and then sink back into oblivion, ...ch a blessing. In the years between ...ctions it is the elected representative ...ho in fact is practically alone, at ...st in the business in Congress, taking ...to the thousands of requests from ...nstituents, speaking before organiza...ns, keeping up with what is going on in ...s district and most important, knowing ...w his people feel about legislation and ...at way. Watt Abbitt has been ...ere for 22 years and his record ...eaks for itself.

...There was a time when we were irked ...th Mr. Abbitt. We did not like the idea ...at the chairman of the Virginia Demo...ratic Party at a time when men like Lyn...n Johnson made the word Democrat sound ...ke a curse and especially bad cuss word, ...ecided to see him drop the Democratic ...arty like a hot rock but, that would have been ...ntrary to his principles at the time. Mr. Abbitt, by ...emaining and holding to his chairmanship, ...as able to prevent radical liberals from gaining control, and one must admire the beautiful footwork by Mr. Abbitt and his conservative supports when they beat the liberals last spring by nominating by convention rather than by the old customary primary. Mr. Abbitt showed he knows how to in-fight when it becomes necessary. The liberals have been screaming ever since, much to our delight.

Mr. Ragsdale represents this liberal element, and has aligned himself with Negro leaders like S. W.Tucker of Emporia and left-wingers such as Dr. C. Gordon Moss, is not talking our language. Mr. Helms is a likable person and probably as good a candidate as the Republican Party could find to oppose Mr. Abbitt. However, we see nothing to be gained by sending either Mr. Ragsdale or Mr. Helms to replace Mr. Abbitt in Congress. One must always remember that in politics it is always the party out of office that is trying to get in. For many years the Republican would not field a candidate against Mr. Abbitt, mostly because they were satisfied with his service, but also because they knew they didn't have a chance to defeat him. Now, with a Republican governor in Richmond the GOP is pushing to get their men elected anywhere they can. This is understandable but if not sufficient reason to support Mr. Helms over Mr. Abbitt.

Mr. Abbitt's record in Congress is enough to warrant the support of the conservative-minded voters in the Fourth District. Check his voting record as far back as you like and it is doubtful that you will find a time he hasn't voted your sentiments on legislation before the House. He has been cited time and again for his stand on vital issues and has not been afraid to speak out against those things which he felt would not benefit this nation. He has been a friend to his people back home in his district. His prompt response to communications from constituents has won him much praise. During his 22 years in Washington he has had opportunity to help thousands of individuals, and he has not hesitated. He has spoken to and visited in every nook and cranny of his district, making government something you can feel. He's Watt Abbitt, our Congressman, someone you can talk with, work with, and someone who has earned the support of Fourth District voters by his excellent record in Washington.

THANKSGIVING DRAMA

Richmond, Va. – A Scottish directorial touch will flavor this year's "all-English" drama – scheduled for 11 a.m., November 22 at Berkeley Plantation – commemorating America's first official Thanksgiving.
Dr. Kenneth Campbell, a native of Dundee, Scotland, and the new chairman of Virginia Commonwealth University's Department of Dramatic Arts and Speech, will supervise the 60-minute presentation.
Sponsored by the Virginia Thanksgiving Festival, Inc., the event is open to the public, and tickets will be available at locations throughout the state. Last year, more than 5,000 attended the program at Berkeley, located about 25 miles east of Richmond off State Rt. 5.
The drama depicts events preceding and following arrival at Berkeley, in December, 1619, of Captain John Woodlief and a small band of English settlers. They had written instructions to give thanks and "yearly and perpetually keep holy a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God."
